Dear Custer Gallatin national Forest:

Growing up in Bozeman, my yearly backpacking trip to the Crazy Mountains with my family was a pilgrimage - one that I continue to this day - and hope to continue with a family of my own eventually. Please protect this special place as designated wilderness for perpetuity. Please also manage our recommended wilderness just as if it were designated wilderness, and not allow mountain biking or motorized use in recommended wilderness. Please work to endure lasting legal public access to our Crazy Mountains for future generations of Montanans.
