Protect Wildlands in the Custer Gallatin National Forest.

I have hiked and ridden in all of these places, except in the Ashland district. They all hold a special place in my heart for the beauty, wildness, wildlife and the utter beauty and solitude of these places. There is NO place on earth like wilderness in Montana.

Areas like these are priceless and not many are left in our country where you can go and not see another soul, hear a car, motorcycle or an airplane. Those that want to spoil what we have are only looking for their own selfish gain and not for the millions that live and come to recreate in Montana!

Thank you for your efforts to protect Montana's wild places!

Sincerely,

Carrie Palmer
